Micompro Expands Team

London, ON, September 10, 2009 - - For Immediate Release

Micompro Ltd. is pleased to announce the hiring of Andrew (Andy) Madsen as a Customer Service Representative, effective September 10, 2009. He will provide PartsHandler application and installation customer service for Micompro.

“Meeting and exceeding our customer expectations is our key focus,” said David Geoffrey, President of Micompro. “This addition to our team better positions us to offer greater support in all areas and in particular our customer service and support department, which is a key element of the PartsHandler product.”

Mr. Madsen comes to Micompro with 25 years experience in the Automotive Parts Distribution industry. This experience includes working with PartsHandler, from “a customer’s point of view”. Mr. Madsen has managed Jobber stores and warehouse operations and logistics this experience and Micompro’s goal to deliver superior software solutions to our customer base, will benefit our customers. Micompro is now positioned to better assist our current customer base and add strength to our team when training and installing new PartsHandler accounts. Mr. Madsen will become an integral component of Micompro’s customer support strategy. Micompro continues to add experienced resources to assist in the growth and development of PartsHandler.

Micompro is a Software Developer, established in 1990, specializing in the Distribution Industry with customers across Canada and the United States with the majority of customers in the automotive distribution after market.
